Position:	Course Instructor
Number of Positions Available	One (1)
Term when the course will be offered:	2018 Winter
Course Number & Course Title:	SMH3058HS Early Christian Art in Cultural Context
Course Description:	This course critically reviews early Christian and Byzantine art from the 2nd to 6th Century. Its fundamental idea is that early Christian art emerged and evolved as manifestations of the faith's conversation with its changing cultural contexts. Students will learn to critically engage the role theology, ecclesiology, socio-economics, and politics have in Christian art, with a special emphasis on church/worship architecture as innovative art.
Qualifications:	Ph.D. with expertise in Christianity History and thorough knowledge of the Roman Catholic theological tradition. Previous teaching experience in a similar course is strongly preferred. Ability to assume sole responsibility for the preparation and grading of all written assignments, and tests.
Brief Description of Duties:	Preparation and delivery of course content; goals/outcomes; development, administration and marking of assignments, tests and exams; calculation and submission of grades; holding regular office hours; supervising TAs (if any) assigned to the course.
Salary:	$7,359 (includes vacation pay)
