

Comments about Kelly InfoExpress for Graduate Students:

I have richly benefited from having been able to utilize Kelly Article services in the course of my ongoing research for my doctoral dissertation. The Kelly Article service has saved valuable time and made the resources of the largest academic library in Canada readily and speedily available to me in my studies.

Reverend C. Pierson Shaw, Jr., PhD 2015

As a student who spends most of my time off of campus, the Kelly Article Service has been one of the most unique and rewarding parts of doing research and enabled me to continue my life as an academic while also being a clergyman and father of two. I am able to access anything I want at the tip of my fingers in a prompt and extremely affordable way without having to trek into campus all the time. Without the Kelly Article Service, my dissertation research and writing simply would not have been possible.

Reverend Deacon Drew K. Maxwell, PhD 2015

Simply put, Kelly Article saves you time and increases your productivity. If you are like me, someone who returned to full time studies after 10 years of professional health care ministry, you already know how valuable "time" is and how it too is part of what higher education costs.

Christopher E. De Bono, PhD 2013

This service is invaluable. Kelly's staff has been a Godsend to me. They have been able to locate some of the most obscure works in a timely manner. I strongly suggest that you take advantage of this service as it will save you time and stress, allowing you to more efficiently complete your work.

Walter Sisto, PhD 2013
