Statement on anti-Asian acts of violence in Atlanta – March 23, 2021

Human Dignity and Community are fundamental values of the University of St. Michael's College. We condemn all forms of racial discrimination and violence and express our support for victims of the recent and horrific misogynistic acts of anti-Asian violence in Atlanta. St. Michael's stands in solidarity with Asian colleagues, students and communities and remains committed to furthering a culture that respects and encourages diversity in all its forms.
