1 POLICY

- 1.01 The University of St. Michael's College ("USMC") is committed to providing a safe and secure learning and working environment that is free from Workplace Violence. USMC prohibits actual, attempted or threatened violence in any form in the conduct of its operations (the "Policy").
- 1.02 USMC has established programs, measures and procedures for the reporting and investigation of complaints of Workplace Violence. All employees shall be made and continue to be aware of and participate in such programs and procedures, as required.
- 1.03 A copy of this Policy shall be provided to each new employee as part of the employee's hiring documentation and acknowledged in employment letter. Additionally, this Policy shall be posted and remain posted on Workplace bulletin boards.
- 1.04 All persons involved in the processing of a complaint of Workplace Violence will ensure that employees who have made good faith complaints or provided information regarding a complaint or incident of Workplace Violence is neither penalized nor subjected to any prejudicial treatment as a result of making the complaint. Disciplinary action will be taken against any person who takes reprisal against a person who reports an incident of Workplace Violence. An employee who makes a false complaint or otherwise abuses this Policy may be disciplined up to and including dismissal from employment. Such discipline is not a reprisal or breach of this Policy.
- 1.05 This Policy will be reviewed by USMC Joint Health and Safety Committee and approved by the Bursar and Chief Financial Officer on an annual basis.

2 PURPOSE

- 2.01 This Policy is intended to:

- b) remove yourself from the situation, lock yourself in an office or go to the Porter's Desk in Elmsley Hall which has been designated as a "safe zone";
- c) report incident to the Porter's Desk either in person or by calling "0" on a USMC phone, or if necessary, call 911 directly and notify the Porter's Desk.
- d) advise your supervisor or union representative (who will report the incident to the Human Resources Officer or Bursar and Chief Financial Officer for further investigation, assessment and follow-up);
- e) all complaints and incidents are to be recorded in writing by the reporting person/employee, the supervisor and the Human Resources Officer or Bursar and Chief Financial Officer, including the date, time, location, potential witnesses and nature of the incident;
- f) if the police have not previously been summoned, the supervisor or Human Resources Officer or Bursar and Chief Financial Officer will report all incidents of Workplace Violence to the police; and,
- g) if an incident of Workplace Violence involves a person who is not an employee of USMC, management or the Human Resources Officer or Bursar and Chief Financial Officer will report the incident to that person's employer and/or such other person as USMC determines is appropriate in the circumstances.

7.03 Investigations:

All complaints or incidents of Workplace Violence will be promptly investigated by Human Resources Officer or Bursar and Chief Financial Officer. Where the perpetrator is a USMC employee, confidentiality will be maintained throughout the investigatory process to the extent reasonably practicable and appropriate in the particular circumstances. Complete anonymity, privacy and confidentiality cannot be guaranteed.

The investigation will include:

- a) documented interview with the complainant and/or victim;
- b) documented interview with the alleged perpetrator(s), where possible;
- c) documented interview with any witnesses with relevant information;
- d) any other procedures deemed necessary to fully and fairly investigate the complaint or incident; and,

- e) preparation of a written report of the findings with recommendations to prevent a recurrence.

Executive management will be advised. The Joint Health and Safety Committee and the appropriate union will be notified if an employee has been injured due to Workplace Violence.

- 7.04 All records relating to a complaint will be kept confidential by USMC, except where disclosure is reasonably required under this Policy or by law. USMC may be required by law to disclose certain personal information of an individual that may be reasonably necessary to protect employees and other third parties from Workplace Violence.
- 7.05 USMC will not tolerate incidents of Workplace Violence perpetrated against or by any employee, customer, vendor, contractor, visitor or any other person involved in its operations.
- 7.06 If a complaint is substantiated following an investigation under this Policy, USMC will take appropriate action against the employee of USMC who violated this Policy. The exact nature and extent of the action taken will be determined based upon the seriousness of the offence and the steps taken by the violator to remedy or apologize for the misconduct. Any action taken under this Policy, including discipline is at the sole discretion of management. USMC may, where appropriate:
- remove the perpetrator from the Workplace by security or the police;
 - discipline any employee, up to and including dismissal, and/or report the conduct to the police; and,
 - report the conduct of any other person to their employer, supervisor and/or to the police.
- 7.07 All physical assaults involving an employee or occurring at the Workplace will be reported to the police. Threats of physical violence will be reported to police as appropriate.
